

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to pre-empt scheduled prime-time programming with the anti-Kerry film should not be allowed. During times of an election, if the decision is made to air a film either positive or negative, the opposing party(ies) should be allowed equal time.

I am shocked that this is going to occur in our country. Free speech has become one-sided.

How about requiring Sinclair to broadcast Fahrenheit 911 right after the Kerry program?

Thank you.
